Chris celebrates 37 years at Kronospan

Kronospan Sales Manager Chris Tyler has retired today after 37 years at the wood panel factory in Chirk.

Chris was involved with the business at the outset and has helped build its successful customer base from the beginning.

A party was given for Chris today (Friday 21st February 2008) which was attended by colleagues, customers, friends and family.

Kronospan's Works Director Mike McKenna gave Chris a video camera and 2 plane tickets to Florida for Chris to visit his brother.

Mike McKenna said, "Chris has contributed to the success of Kronospan and has been a loyal and trusted employee for 37 years. It is wonderful to see so many people here that have worked with Chris over the years. He will be greatly missed by the company but we wish him all the best in his retirement".
